Services for Australian Rural and Remote Allied Health

PHOTOGRAPHY PERMISSION FORM

This permission form is to be signed by the person in the photograph.

As part of our communications activity, Services for Australian Rural and Remote Allied Health (SARRAH) use photographs for publicity purposes. The photographer seeks your permission to use a photograph of you/your relative for possible inclusion in SARRAH promotional material, on the website, on social media, and in other SARRAH publications such as Annual Reports and submissions. The image(s) will remain the property of the photographer and will be used for the designated purpose of illustrating the stories of Allied Health Professionals who live and work in rural and remote Australia. The images may also be used, where appropriate, on the SARRAH website to promote other activities that support rural and remote Allied Health Professionals. You/your relative's contact details will remain strictly confidential. Photographs will be kept for use for the above-mentioned purposes, for a period of no more than five years, and will be stored and disposed of in accordance with the Privacy Act (1988) (Cwlth).
