

SARRAH

Photographic competition 2021

Dust off your lenses because it's time to get snap-happy for SARRAH's photographic competition!

This year the theme is "Rural and Remote Allied Health in Action". We would love to see photos of you at work across the many nations that make up this continent, sharing important stories about what you do and the communities you serve.

This is an opportunity to showcase your photographs through SARRAH's communication channels and have your photographic work acknowledged.

Entry Terms and condition:

- By entering this competition, you are granting permission for SARRAH to use your work in our social media and other communication channels. We use photographic material to promote the work of SARRAH in social media, publications such as our Annual Reports and project evaluations, and in submissions to government consultations processes. If your photographs are used in this way, you will be acknowledged as the photographer.
- Please also ensure that you have obtained consent from the people depicted in your photograph. If we do not have completed consent forms, your entry will be void. We have provided a photograph consent form for your use. Photograph permission form.
- Entrants can submit an unlimited number of photographs in landscape or portrait format. Each photo must be accompanied by a caption identifying the date and location.
- All photographs must be in high quality digital images in PNG or JPEG Format.
- The names of the competition winners will be published in SARRAH communication channels.

Assessment and Prizes

- SARRAH will appoint independent assessors to determine the winners.
- Winners will receive the following prizes:
 - 1st Prize: $350 cash prize and free annual membership with SARRAH
 - 2nd Prize: $200 cash prize and free SARRAH annual membership
 - 3rd Prize: $100 cash prize and free SARRAH annual membership

You all are welcome to join SARRAH and share your photographs with the SARRAH community by Friday 13 August 2021 at sarah@sarah.org.au
